EVENTS OF INTEREST IN AND OUT OF TOWN

Mrs. Lansing Entertaining at Tea This Afternoon for Her House Guests.

Dinner Parties of Last Night—The Oliphant-Wallace Wedding. Luncheons, Teas, Notes.

Mrs. Robert Lansing is entertaining at a tea this afternoon, when her guests will meet Mrs. W. C. Stephens and Mrs. C. W. Baileys of Watertown, N. Y., who are with her for a ten-day visit.

The drawing rooms are gay with spring flowers, and these blossoms also decorated the table from which tea was served. Mrs. Josephus Daniels, Mrs. John W. Davis, Mrs. Charles Warren and others will assist in the hospitality during the afternoon.

Gen. and Mrs. John W. Foster, who spent some days at Atlantic City, returned to Washington Saturday. Mrs. Foster, the daughter, will join them at their home, on 18th street, Thursday morning, and later in the day she and her father will leave the city for Tate Springs, Tenn., where they will spend several weeks.

The Chinese minister and Mrs. Koo entertained at dinner last evening in compliment to the Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing. Those asked to meet the honor guests were the Bolivian minister and Mrs. Calderon, Senator Stone, Miss Stone, Representative Flood, Mrs. Thomas Bayard, the counselor of the State Department and Mrs. Frank Folk, Judge and Mrs. Charles C. McChord, Maj. Gen. and Mrs. Murray, Dr. and Mrs. Yanes, Dr. and Mrs. James Brown Scott, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Williams and the counselor of the Chinese legation and Mrs. Yung Kwai.

Another tea of the afternoon where official and resident society will meet is at the home of Mrs. Carl S. Vrooman, where she is entertaining in honor of her cousin, Miss Letitia Stevenson, and her niece, Miss Elizabeth Stevenson, the latter a student at Bryn Mawr.

Mrs. Vrooman has a large party to assist her during the afternoon, and many of the guests are friends made during the Cleveland administration, when Miss Stevenson's father was Vice President.

Spring flowers in quantity and variety of color are arranged throughout the rooms used for entertaining.

Mrs. Joseph P. Sanger is entertaining at a small tea this afternoon at the Country Club in honor of Col. and Mrs. William Cary Sanger.

Mrs. Warren, wife of Assistant Attorney General Charles Warren, entertained at a delightful arranged luncheon today at her home on 15th street. Guests about the flower-laden table were Mrs. Willard Saulsbury, Mrs. Alfred E. Bates, Mrs. Benjamin H. Warder, Mrs. C. C. Glover, Mrs. Blair, Mrs. H. Morgan Hill, Mrs. Richard A. Harlow, Mrs. Joseph H. Bradley, Mrs. Allerton Cunningham, Miss Tinkham of Boston, Miss Martha C. Codman, Miss Mary J. Sherrill, Miss Squire and Miss Abbie B. McCammon.

Mrs. Calvin DeWitt Paige, wife of Representative Paige of Massachusetts, entertained a luncheon party at Raucher's today, when her guests met her cousins, the Misses Edwards of Boston, who are spending ten days with her. In the company at luncheon were Mrs. Ernest W. Roberts, Mrs. John A. Peters, Mrs. James S. S. Sanford, Mrs. Patrick H. Kelley, Mrs. Rollin B. Sanford, Mrs. Simeon D. Fess and Miss Newell of Chevy Chase.

Mme. Julian E. Rose of Paris, who is spending some months in Washington, and making her home at the Fortland, entertained at luncheon today at Raucher's. The table was sprinkled in its array of blossoms arranged in white and gold baskets, a large basket filling the center, while smaller baskets were ranged about it. Realistic butterflies hovered over the flowers and were so arranged on invisible wires that they constantly moved and fluttered their gauzy wings. Mme. Rose's guests included Mrs. Claude A. Swanson, Mrs. William Alden Smith, Mrs. John W. Foster, Mrs. Henry P. Dimock, Mrs. T. De Witt Talmage, Mrs. Dunn, Mrs. John Lindsay Morehead, Mrs. Joseph E. Thompson, Mrs. S. M. Young, the Countess de Westworth, Mrs. John Temple Graves, Mrs. Charles Henry Butler, Mrs. Samuel Graham, Mrs. David Jayne Hill, Mrs. Hutchinson, Mrs. Albert Douglas and others to the number of thirty.

Mrs. Walter R. Stines, who with her husband, Representative Stines of Rhode Island, is occupying the home of Miss Alice Gertrude Gordon on 16th street, is entertaining at a tea this afternoon for her house guests, Miss Wendelbacher of Providence and Miss Valentine of Fall River. Pink flowers prevail in the decoration of spring blossoms.

Assisting Mrs. Stines during the afternoon will be Mrs. John F. Shafer, Mrs. Frederick C. Hicks, Mrs. S. Wallace Dempsey and Mrs. Robert F. Hopwood. Serving tea at the table will be Mrs. Shepherd and Miss Hopwood.

The Rev. Andrew R. Bird performed the ceremony at the marriage of Miss Alice L. Crane and Mr. Robert C. Rogers, which took place very quietly last evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride. Only the members of the two families were present.

The first annual dance of the class of 1915 of the Business High School will be held Thursday evening at the Potomac Boat Club. It is expected that many of the alumni will join in a general reunion before the dance, which is in charge of the committee headed by Joseph C. McGarragh, president of the class of 1915. The other members of the committee are Marguerite M. Milne, vice president; Edna M. Colburn, secretary; Raymond J. Wise, treasurer, and Pauline M. Floyd, M. Elizabeth Speiser, James B. Mahoney and Norman E. Duehring.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Drury of 1422 Massachusetts avenue entertained at a supper dance last evening at their home in honor of Miss Marion Hawkins of New York city, niece of Mrs. Drury. The ball, reception and dining rooms were beautifully decorated with spring flowers. Among those present were Miss Marie Enright, Miss Alice Johnson, Miss Marion Hawkins, Miss Marion Killane Bankhead, Miss Margaret Callahan, Miss Dorothy Calahan, Miss Thelma Brennan, Miss Alice Carmody, Miss Margaret Daly, Miss Josephine Daly, Miss Alga Forsberg, Miss Katherine Kellher, Miss Margaret Moran, Miss Margaret Lake, Miss Helene Hughes, Miss Mildred McGee, Mr. John Carmody, Mr. Joseph Crowley, Mr. John Breslin, Mr. William Abern, Mr. Edwin Dowd, Mr. Cecil Dowd, Mr. R. BRIDE OF LAST EVENING.

MRS. M. CAMPBELL OLIPHANT.
Formerly Miss Mary Courtland Wallace.

minga, Mr. Gerald Drury, Mr. Leo Drury, Mr. William Cusack, Mr. Arthur Drury and Mr. William Drury.

The marriage of Miss Mary Courtland Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Clay Wallace, and Mr. M. Campbell Oliphant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hughes Oliphant, took place last night at 8 o'clock, at St. John's Episcopal Church, Norwood parish, Bradley lane, Rev. James Kirkpatrick, rector of the church, officiating.

The church was banked with palms, ferns and cherry blossoms, while clusters of announcement bills filled the altar vases. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an exquisite gown of white satin and duchess lace. Her tulle veil, which was becomingly arranged with a coronet of orange blossom, fell in graceful folds to the end of her court train.

She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor, Miss Katherine Bohrer, wore a lovely gown of pale blue charmeuse combined with georgette, crepe and trimmed with silver lace. Miss Brenda Wallace, who served as bridesmaid for her sister, wore apricot charmeuse, with an overdress of shadow lace. They carried bouquets of sunburst roses.

Miss Margaret Fleming and Miss Alma Johnson, who were the little flower girls, wore white tulle dresses with short waists, with eon jackets and ruffled skirts. Each wore a pale blue ribbon in her hair and carried a gold basket filled with sweet peas.

Mr. Ralph O. Wilson of Somerset, Md., acted as best man, and the ushers were Mr. R. French Wallace and Mr. Henry Marbury.

There was no reception, and Mr. and Mrs. Oliphant left immediately for their wedding trip. Mrs. Oliphant wearing a smart tailored gown of black and white check and a small purple toque. Upon their return they will be at home at Langdrum, Drummond, Md.

Mrs. Wallace, mother of the bride, wore a becoming gown of cream net and shadow lace, with a girdle of pink and blue satin.

Mrs. Oliphant, mother of the bride, wore a gown of pale blue messaline, the bodice having the sleeves and vest of lace.

Among the out-of-town guests here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Greenham of Atlanta, Ga.; Miss Emma Macleod of Dunbar, N. J.; Mr. Holtzman of Johnstown, Pa. and Mr. Heiberger of Plainfield, N. J.

Col. and Mrs. William Cary Sanger of Sangerfield, N. Y., accompanied by their daughter, Miss Mary Sanger, are at the Shoreham for a stay of several weeks. Col. Sanger was an assistant secretary of war during the Roosevelt administration.

Miss Valerie Emerson of Rochester, N. Y., is here for an extended visit with her aunt, Miss M. Grace Storms of Pointnet Courts.

Miss Elizabeth Fulton was hostess at a luncheon today, given in compliment to Miss Doris Drain.

Washington recently visiting his father and mother at 1017 K street.

Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Mann entertained at dinner last night, the party later attending the Army and Navy League ball at the navy yard.

Col. and Mrs. George B. Duncan were hosts at dinner last night at their residence, on 17th street, in compliment to their house guests, Mrs. Duncan, Draper and Mrs. Algernon Daingerfield.

The Congressional Club has sent out invitations for a series of card parties on May 4, 17 and 31, from 2 to 6 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McKee announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary Edith and Mr. Clarence M. Jarboe of Ithaca, N. Y., at noon yesterday by the Rev. Charles E. Fultz.

The ceremony was performed at the bride's home, 1512 North Capitol street, in the presence of the immediate family only. The bride was preceded by three small nieces, Amittas, Winifred and Louise McKee, carrying long-handled baskets of pink and white sweet peas.

Master Ralph McKee, the two-year-old, officiated.
